

Name _____

Backstory Creation

Directions: Read the character prompt. Then write one paragraph that explains a formative event from the character's past and how it shaped one of their beliefs or fears. Use clear details that show why this moment matters.

Your character loves exploring new places but avoids climbing anything tall. Write about a moment from their childhood that explains why they feel this way now. Focus on the event, what happened, and how it shaped their belief or fear.

Write Your Backstory Paragraph
