Extra Challenge (Sample Answer):

Charlotte's Web tells the story of Wilbur, a runt pig who is saved from being killed by a young girl named Fern. Wilbur grows up in the barnyard, but he feels lonely until he meets Charlotte, a wise and kind spider. When Wilbur learns he may be slaughtered, Charlotte promises to help him. She weaves words like "Some Pig" and "Terrific" into her web, amazing the humans and saving Wilbur's life. With the help of Templeton the rat and the other animals, Charlotte's plan succeeds. In the end, Charlotte dies after laying her eggs, but Wilbur carries on her legacy by caring for her children, remembering the friendship that changed his life.
