Teacher's Guide

- Quick implementation: Explain that the payee is the person or business receiving the money, not the product or service being purchased.
- Differentiation: Have students underline the recipient and circle the item or service in each transaction before identifying the payee.
- Differentiation: For additional support, ask, "Who receives the money?" after each transaction.
- Engagement: Have students act as check writers and verify a partner's payee choices before reviewing the answers.
- Extension: Ask students to write three new transactions and identify both the payee and the memo description for each check.
