Teacher's Guide:

- Skill Focus: Identifying adjectives, vocabulary development, and contextual reading comprehension.
- Differentiation Tips:
 - For emerging readers, read the story aloud and highlight one sentence at a time for group identification.
 - For advanced learners, ask students to write their own short paragraph using five new adjectives to describe a Chinese New Year celebration.
- Engagement Idea: After identifying adjectives, let students decorate paper lanterns with one adjective written on each-forming a "Wall of Words" display.
- Extension Activity: Have students sort adjectives by type (sight, sound, taste, feeling) or rewrite the story using different adjectives to change the mood.
- Cross-Curricular Link: Connect to art and culture by showing real photos of Chinese New Year festivals and having students describe them aloud using vivid adjectives.
