Organized Explanations

Directions: Read the essay prompt below. Write a multi-paragraph classification essay that uses clear, well-defined categories to explain, analyze, or compare the topic. Be sure to introduce your categories, support them with examples, and conclude with a final insight. A planning organizer is provided below. Write your essay on a separate sheet.

People use technology in many different ways in their daily lives. Write a classification essay that explains three distinct categories of everyday technology use. Choose your own categories, but each must be clear, specific, and supported with relevant examples. Your essay should include an introduction, three body paragraphs (one for each category), and a conclusion.

Your three categories:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Examples or details for each category:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Final insight or conclusion idea:
