Creative Writing with Cloud Types

Imagine you are outside looking at the sky. You notice several different kinds of clouds drifting overhead. Your task is to write a short story (1-2 paragraphs) that describes the sky scene. Be sure to:

- Use at least three different cloud types in your story.
- Describe what each cloud looks like (thin, wispy, puffy, dark, tall, etc.).
- Include what kind of weather those clouds might bring.
- Make your story creative. It can be set in your backyard, on an adventure at sea, or even in a fantasy world!

Writing Prompt

"The sky is alive with clouds today. As you look up, you see..."

(Continue the story, weaving in cloud types and weather.)

Reflection Question: How did the clouds in your story change the mood or setting of your scene?
