

Name _____

Colligation Cleanup

Directions: Read the paragraph below. It contains 10 broken colligations (verbs with the wrong prepositions, adjectives with incorrect partners, or verbs with the wrong noun structures). Underline the errors and rewrite the paragraph correctly.

Yesterday, Daniel insisted to join the basketball team even though his parents were afraid from him getting injured. He tried to concentrate at his practice, but he often forgot to pay attention on the coach's instructions. When he made a mistake, he usually apologized with his teammates, but sometimes he complained on the tough schedule. His coach told him that he was capable to handle the challenges if he relied in his team for support. Daniel promised to keep on his promise to work hard and succeed at improving his skills.
