

Name _____

Better Colligations

Directions: Each sentence below is written with awkward or incorrect colligation (verbs paired with the wrong prepositions or nouns). Rewrite each sentence so it uses the correct colligation pattern.

1. She is concentrating at her studies for the final exams.

2. He insisted to go to the party even though he was tired.

3. We discussed about the new project in detail.

4. The child is capable to solve the puzzle.

5. I need to provide with more information for the report.

6. They succeeded on winning the championship.

7. He took on his promise seriously.

8. I apologize with the mistake I made.

9. She relies in her older sister for support.

10. We complained on the poor service at the restaurant.
