Teacher's Guide

- Review common prefixes such as re-, un-, pre-, and dis- before students begin filling in the passage.
- Encourage students to read the entire story once before choosing words. Remind them to use context clues to determine meaning.
- For differentiation, provide a simplified word bank with only the correct number of choices or add picture cues for emerging readers.
- For engagement, allow students to create a quick illustration of one scene from the story using the completed passage.
- For extension, challenge advanced learners to write a new short paragraph using at least three different prefixed words not included in this worksheet.
