This weekend, Max and Tori went on a campout with Dad. When they arrived, they had to _____ their bags before setting up the tent. Max tried to help, but he had to _____ the rope bundle because he tied it too tightly at home.

Tori wanted to start cooking, so Dad told her to _____ the grill. Max thought the directions looked confusing, so he decided to _____ them carefully. Later, the two kids tried to record a bird call and then _____ it to hear the sound again.

Before bedtime, they found a map hidden under a log and tried to _____ the clues on it. They realized they needed to _____ their plan for the next morning and explore a different trail.
