Teacher's Guide

- Review the prefixes re- and un- and their meanings. Emphasize nuance: re- can mean do again or think again, un- typically means not.
- Discuss the difference between each pair of options before students begin. For example, replay vs. replace or unclear vs. unfair.
- For differentiation, provide visuals or short definitions for each pair so students understand meaning differences.
- Encourage students to read each sentence aloud to decide which option fits best.
- For engagement, allow students to create their own tricky word pairs using prefixes and challenge a partner to use them correctly in sentences.
- For extension, ask students to write original sentences using both words in one pair to show they fully understand the meanings.
