- Review common prefixes before reading the passage: re-, un-, pre-, dis-.
- Model how to find a prefixed word by identifying the base word and the added prefix.
- For differentiation, allow some students to highlight prefixes in one color and the base word in another.
- Provide a prefix chart for learners who need additional support or visual scaffolding.
- For engagement, turn the passage into a timed hunt and let students compare findings with a partner.
- For extension, have advanced students rewrite two sentences from the passage using different prefixed words that still make sense.
