

Name _____

Common vs. Proper Nouns Worksheet

Directions - The travel blogger below is great at exploring the world—but not so great at using capital letters! Help fix their journal by rewriting each sentence with proper nouns correctly capitalized.

1. last summer, we flew from boston to london to start our adventure.
2. my cousin jack met us at heathrow airport when we arrived.
3. we spent two days touring the british museum and riding the london eye.
4. our next stop was rome, where we saw the colosseum and the trevi fountain.
5. we ate gelato every night in italy—it was amazing!
6. our tour guide, maria, told us stories about ancient roman emperors.
7. after italy, we flew to tokyo and visited the sensō-ji temple.
8. i tried sushi for the first time at a restaurant in shibuya.
9. we took a train ride on the famous bullet train to kyoto.
10. my brother david bought a samurai sword at a market near nijo castle.
11. we returned to the united states and stayed with aunt rachel in seattle.
12. she took us to see mount rainier and the space needle.
13. i bought a souvenir mug with the words "i love washington" on it.
14. before flying home, we stopped in vancouver, canada for two days.
15. this trip made me want to study history at harvard university one day!

