

Name _____

Level Up! – The Video Game Challenge

Instructions - Read the story about a video game adventure. Each blank contains an adjective in parentheses. Your job is to write the correct comparative or superlative form of the adjective in the blank. Think carefully about whether it's comparing two things or showing the highest/lowest degree.

Eli and Zoe were playing Galaxy Quest X, one of the (popular) _____ games at their school. It had just released a new level, and everyone said it was the (hard) _____ one yet.

As they started the level, they chose their characters — Eli picked the (fast) _____ alien, while Zoe picked the (strong) _____ robot. Zoe said, “My character may be slower, but it’s way (tough) _____ in battles!”

In the first zone, Eli jumped over the (high) _____ wall while dodging fireballs. Zoe took the (safe) _____ path but had to defeat (many) _____ enemies along the way.

Halfway through the game, Eli found a secret tunnel that was (dark) _____ than any part they had seen before. Zoe took a wrong turn into a lava pit — it was the (dangerous) _____ area in the whole game!

Despite the challenges, they both got (close) _____ to the final boss. The boss was much (powerful) _____ than they expected. Zoe used her robot’s defense while Eli attacked with his (quick) _____ moves.

At last, they beat the level with just one second to spare. “That was the (intense) _____ game I’ve ever played!” shouted Eli. Zoe grinned and said, “And also the (fun) _____!”
