Adaptation Analysis

Directions: Read the excerpts below. They share the same story, but the first one is in written format and the other is a scene from its film adaptation. Then, fill in the chart that follows with their similarities and differences.

Short Story Excerpt: The Brave Mouse

A small mouse wanted to prove its courage by helping a lion caught in a hunter's net. The mouse chewed the ropes until the lion was free. The lion, grateful and surprised, promised to always respect even the smallest creatures. The story's message was that even little beings can make a big difference.

Movie Scene: The Brave Mouse

In the movie, the mouse first tries to run away from the lion but later returns when the lion is trapped. The mouse calls on other animals, and together they chew the ropes to free the lion. The lion praises the mouse for leadership, not just bravery. The movie ends with the animals celebrating together.
