

Right Clause Choice

Directions: Each sentence below is incomplete. Three possible dependent clauses are provided. Choose the clause that makes the most logical sense in context. Circle the letter of your choice.

1. I brought an umbrella ____
A. before the storm began.
B. although the pizza was delicious.
C. since my shoes are red.
D. because it was raining.
2. She couldn't hear the teacher ____
A. after she sharpened her pencil.
B. because the class was too noisy.
C. since she studied all night.
D. while the students were talking.
3. We stayed at the park ____
A. when the sun went down.
B. unless we finished our homework.
C. until it got dark.
D. because the weather was perfect.
4. He was nervous ____
A. although he had practiced for weeks.
B. before the dog barked loudly.
C. if the pizza is ready.
D. when he stepped on stage.
5. The baby laughed ____
A. because the clown made a silly face.
B. unless she forgot her homework.
C. while the car was in the garage.
D. when her brother tickled her.
6. We will miss the bus ____
A. while the teacher smiled.
B. because the pizza was hot.
C. if we don't leave now.
D. unless we run quickly.
7. I stayed awake ____
A. because I drank coffee.
B. unless the story ended quickly.
C. after the clown told a joke.
D. since the fireworks were so loud.
8. She wore her boots ____
A. although she likes chocolate ice cream.
B. because it was snowing outside.
C. since she wanted to eat dinner.
D. while she walked through the mud.