

Spot the Connector

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Each one is a compound sentence with two independent clauses joined by a coordinating conjunction. Underline the coordinating conjunction that connects the two clauses.

1. I wanted to go for a run, but it started raining heavily.
2. She can bake a cake, or she can make cookies for the party.
3. We finished the project early, so we had time to play soccer afterward.
4. He studied hard for the exam, and he earned the highest grade in the class.
5. The dog barked loudly, yet the baby continued sleeping peacefully.
6. I will save my allowance this week, for I want to buy a new book.
7. The movie was long, but it was also very exciting.
8. You may join us for dinner, or you can eat later if you're busy.
9. The team worked together, and they won the championship game.
10. She tried to open the jar, yet it wouldn't budge no matter how hard she turned it.
11. I wanted to call you, but my phone battery had died.
12. We could go hiking tomorrow, or we could stay home and rest.
13. He loves to read novels, and he enjoys writing stories of his own.
14. She was nervous, yet she spoke clearly during the presentation.
15. I will pack my lunch, for I don't want to spend money at the cafeteria.
16. The cat jumped onto the table, and it knocked over the vase.
17. He studied for hours, so he felt confident before the test.
18. You may come with us, or you can meet us there later.
19. She enjoys painting, but she prefers drawing even more.
20. The sun was shining, and the birds were singing loudly.