

Name _____

Finish the Compound

Directions: Each sentence below begins with one independent clause, followed by a coordinating conjunction (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so). Your job is to complete the sentence with another independent clause so that the whole sentence becomes a compound sentence. Be creative, but keep your sentences logical.

1. I wanted to go to the park, but _____.
2. She practiced the piano every day, so _____.
3. The movie was very long, yet _____.
4. He studied all week, and _____.
5. We could order pizza, or _____.
6. The dog barked loudly, for _____.
7. I was feeling tired, but _____.
8. She enjoys painting, and _____.
9. The sun was shining, so _____.
10. He didn't like the spicy curry, nor _____.