

Name _____

Join The Sentence Halves

Directions: Below are two lists of sentence halves. Each sentence from Column A can be joined with one from Column B using an appropriate coordinating conjunction (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so). Match the pairs to create logical compound sentences. Write the complete sentences on the lines provided.

Column A - Sentence Starters

- A1. I wanted to ride my bike,
- A2. We could go to the museum,
- A3. The sky was clear,
- A4. She studied very hard for the test,
- A5. The children were tired,
- A6. He didn't like the spicy curry,
- A7. The computer froze,
- A8. She enjoys painting,

Column B - Sentence Endings

- B1. but the wind made it difficult.
- B2. so she earned the highest grade in class.
- B3. and he preferred pasta instead.
- B4. or we could spend the afternoon at the park.
- B5. for they had been playing all day.
- B6. yet the internet connection still worked.
- B7. and she also loves playing the piano.
- B8. so we decided to have a picnic outside.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____