

Noun Grounding Station

Instructions - Read each sentence carefully. The abstract noun is in bold. Replace it with a concrete noun that shows the same meaning through something tangible. Rewrite the sentence to keep it grammatically correct and meaningful.

Example Grounding

Original: Her happiness lit up the room.

Transformed: Her smile lit up the room.

- “Smile” is a concrete noun that shows the abstract idea of happiness.

Sentences to Ground

1. Her happiness lit up the room.
2. He gave me his full attention.
3. The anger in her voice was obvious.
4. They celebrated their success together.
5. We waited in fear for the results.
6. His kindness meant a lot to me.
7. She was filled with love.
8. The speech gave them hope.
9. I showed respect by listening.
10. Their friendship lasted for years.
11. The crowd erupted with excitement.
12. She held onto her faith through hard times.
13. I admired his bravery.
14. The painting captured the loneliness of winter.
15. He took great pride in his work.

