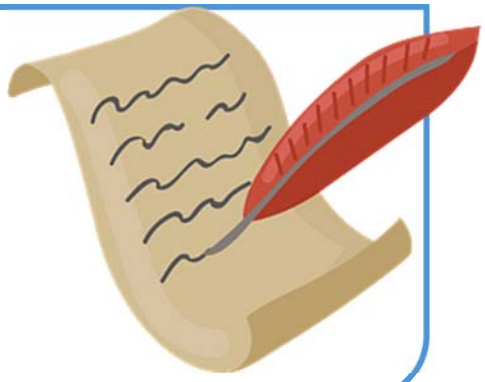
Name _____

Rights Reflection



Directions: Read the Bill of Rights and think about what each amendment protects. Then, write a short essay (one well-developed paragraph or more) explaining which amendment you believe is most important and why. Use examples, reasoning, and real-life connections to support your ideas.

Prompt: Which amendment from the Bill of Rights do you think is most important to protecting freedom today? Explain your choice with evidence and personal reflection.

Helpful Hints:

- Begin with a clear statement of your opinion.
- Include at least two reasons or examples that support your view.
- Conclude by explaining how this amendment continues to shape modern life.
