

Add Three Details Sample Answer Key

1. Write about your favorite animal.

- a) For 3rd-grade readers
- b) Use a friendly, playful tone
- c) Include two fun facts about what it eats

Why: Audience, tone, and detail create a clear, focused task for the AI.

2. Explain how to save money.

- a) For middle school students
- b) Include five practical tips
- c) Write it as advice from a financial coach

Why: Adds purpose (to teach), audience, and limit (five tips).

3. Tell a story about a rainy day.

- a) For children who enjoy short stories
- b) Use a cheerful, hopeful tone
- c) Keep it under one page

Why: Provides tone, audience, and scope to guide storytelling.

4. Describe what teamwork means.

- a) For a school newspaper article
- b) Include two examples of teamwork in sports
- c) Use an encouraging tone

Why: Gives purpose (to inform), examples, and tone.

5. Explain how volcanoes form.

- a) For 6th-grade science students
- b) Include the words "magma," "lava," and "eruption"
- c) Write three paragraphs with clear steps

Why: Specifies audience, vocabulary, and structure for clarity.

6. Write about kindness.

- a) For your school's kindness campaign
- b) Persuasive tone encouraging classmates to be kind
- c) Give three real-life examples

Why: Defines purpose, tone, and structure for practical relevance.