Talk Show Time - No Interruptions Allowed!

Part 1: Talk Show Scenes

Below are some scenes from different talk show episodes. Decide whether the guest is showing Good Listening (GL) or Interrupting (I) behavior. Write GL or I next to each.

1. ____ The host is asking a question, but the guest starts answering before the question is finished.
 2. ____ The guest nods and waits until the host finishes before responding.
 3. ____ While another guest is telling a story, one person says loudly, "That happened to me too!"
 4. ____ The host pauses and looks at the guest, who then starts to answer.
 5. ____ A guest cuts in while someone else is mid-sentence to correct a detail.

Part 2: Fix the Interruption! 🛠️

Rewrite each interrupting sentence so it shows patience and turn-taking. Use polite starters like:

- "Can I share something when you're done?"
- "I'd like to add something after you finish."
- "Oh! I have something to say when you're ready."

6. Interrupting: "That's wrong! It wasn't Tuesday—it was Wednesday."

Polite Version: _____

7. Interrupting: "I know! I've been there too!"

Polite Version: _____

8. Interrupting: "Wait, I need to say something first!"
