Conversation Court - Mastering the Back-and-Forth

Part 1: Who's Playing Fair?

Below are some mini scenes of "conversation games." Decide if the person is showing Good Turn-Taking (GTT) or Conversation Hog (CH). Write GTT or CH next to each.

1. Sam listens to his friend tell a story, then asks, "What happened next?"

2. Lila talks for 5 minutes straight and never lets her friend say anything.

3. Marcus takes a turn, then asks, "Have you ever done something like that?"

4. Emily interrupts her friend halfway through a sentence to say her own story.

5. Taylor adds to the conversation and then says, "What do you think?"

Part 2: Set, Pass, Spike!

Read the conversation below. Fill in the blank with something the person could say to "pass the ball" back and keep the conversation going.

Conversation Scene:

Jamie: "This weekend I went hiking with my cousins. We climbed a huge hill and saw a deer!"

You: "Wow, that sounds fun! _____"

(Your sentence should show interest, connect to what Jamie said, or invite Jamie to keep going.)
