

Name _____

Honoring A Legacy Answer Key

Example: Frida Kahlo - Artist and Symbol of Strength

Frida Kahlo was a Mexican painter who turned her pain into beautiful, emotional art. Her legacy lives on as a voice for creativity and resilience.

Artifacts:

1. Paintbrush - Represents her dedication to art.
2. Flower Crown - Symbolizes her Mexican heritage and unique self-expression.
3. Mirror - Reflects how she often painted herself and explored identity.
Reflection: I would celebrate Frida by painting a small portrait of someone important to me and displaying it on her altar with marigolds.

Teacher's Guide

- Skill Focus: Writing, summarizing, cultural understanding, and symbolic reasoning.
- Differentiation Tips:
  - For younger or struggling writers, use sentence frames (e.g., "I chose ___ because they taught me ___").
  - Advanced students can research primary sources or add citations for biographical details.
- Engagement Ideas:
  - Encourage students to bring printed photos or drawings to decorate their "profile altar" page.
  - Create a classroom "Hall of Heroes" display with student work and marigold borders.
- Extension Activity: Have students present their profiles aloud, explaining one artifact and its meaning to the class.