Peer Pressure Advice

Directions: Read each letter from a fictional student asking for help. Write a short advice response (4-6 sentences) that shows kindness, understanding, and a smart way to handle the situation.

Dear Advice Column,
My friends want me to make fun of a new student so they will laugh and think I'm funny. I don't really want to do it, but I'm scared they won't like me anymore if I say no. What should I do?

- Nervous in Class

Dear Advice Column,
My best friend told me to skip practice today because they didn't feel like going. I know our coach will be upset if we miss it. How can I say no without making my friend mad?

- Unsure Teammate

Dear Advice Column,
Someone in my group keeps sending mean messages about another student. They want me to forward them, but I feel uncomfortable. What can I do to stop this without causing drama?
