Smarts Under Pressure

Directions: Read each unfinished story carefully. Then write the next three sentences to show how the character makes a smart choice and learns an important lesson.

Scenario 1: Liam's friends dared him to take a snack from the school store without paying. At first, he laughed and said maybe he would. Then he looked at the cashier and felt nervous. What happens next?

Scenario 2: Kayla's group text started making jokes about another student in their class. Kayla didn't like it, but she didn't want everyone to think she had no sense of humor. What happens next?

Scenario 3: Derek's friends told him to skip practice and hang out at the park instead. He really wanted to go, but he remembered the coach said missing practice would hurt the team. What happens next?
