Enduring Ideals

Directions: Read each prompt about later American movements. Explain, in complete sentences, how ideas from the Declaration of Independence influenced these efforts for freedom and equality.

Ideals Across Time

1. Abolition Movement (ending slavery in the 1800s)
How did the idea that "all men are created equal" support the argument against slavery?
2. Women's Rights Movement (Seneca Falls Convention, 1848 and beyond)
How did activists use the belief in "unalienable rights" to argue for women's equality?
3. Civil Rights Movement (1950s-1960s)
How did leaders like Martin Luther King Jr. rely on the Declaration's promises to demand fairness?

Connecting Ideals - Read the famous Declaration phrase: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal." Explain how this statement continues to influence demands for fairness in America today.
