

Name _____

Sentence Sort And Match Answer Key

1. Please clean up your desk before we leave. → C (Imperative)
2. The stars shine brightly in the night sky. → A (Declarative)
3. Wow, that roller coaster was amazing! → D (Exclamatory)
4. What time does the movie start? → B (Interrogative)
5. Can you help me carry these books? → B (Interrogative)
6. The library is open until 6 p.m. today. → A (Declarative)
7. Don't forget to turn off the lights when you leave the room. → C (Imperative)
8. That fireworks show was the best one I've ever seen! → D (Exclamatory)
9. The dog barked loudly at the mail carrier. → A (Declarative)
10. Will we have a test on Friday? → B (Interrogative)

Teacher Notes / Guide:

- Remind students that punctuation is a key signal: . ? !
- Interrogatives must end with a question mark; exclamatory sentences with an exclamation mark.
- Imperatives often omit the subject "you" but still direct someone to act.
- Extension idea: Add a "create your own" section where students write one original sentence for each definition.