

Name _____

Combine with Demonstratives

Directions: Below are pairs of short sentences. Combine each pair into one smooth sentence using the correct demonstrative pronoun (this, that, these, those). Be sure your combined sentence makes sense and flows naturally.

1. The cake is on the table. The cake looks delicious.

2. The shoes are near the door. The shoes belong to my sister.

3. I hear a loud sound. The loud sound is coming from outside.

4. The books are in my backpack. The books are for history class.

5. The mountain is far away. The mountain is covered with snow.

6. The cookies are fresh from the oven. The cookies smell amazing.

7. I remember the summer we went to the beach. The summer was unforgettable.

8. The pictures are on the wall. The pictures are very old.

Challenge: Write two of your own short sentences and then combine them using a demonstrative pronoun.
