Demonstrative Story Writing

Directions: Write a short story (3-4 sentences) that uses all four demonstrative pronouns: this, that, these, those. Underline each demonstrative pronoun in your story. Be creative; your story can be about friends, school, sports, or an adventure.

Example (do not copy):

I found this shiny coin on the ground. My friend said, "Remember that time we discovered treasure in the park?" We also picked up these colorful leaves for our scrapbook. In the distance, we could see those clouds getting darker.
