

Name _____

You're the Story Animator!

Skill Focus: Rewriting “telling” sentences into vivid “showing” descriptions using actions, body language, facial expressions, and sensory details.

Animator's Challenge:

You've been hired to help turn a short story into a graphic novel! But here's the problem-the script is too boring. The characters just say how they feel instead of showing it through what they do.

Your job? Rewrite each “telling” sentence so it's full of strong visual and emotional clues- so much so that an artist could draw the scene just from your words!

Use body language, actions, expressions, and even dialogue to bring each sentence to life.
