Live from the Page

Welcome to “Live from the Page,” the talk show where characters from books, movies, and your imagination come to life and tell their stories!

Your job? Choose a character (real or fictional), and write a mini talk show interview with them. You’ll ask at least five unique questions and then write the answers as if the character is responding in their own voice.

You’ll need to think about:

- How does the character speak?
- What do they care about or fear?
- What makes them special or memorable?
- What do they want people to know about them?

Your Task: Step 1: Choose a character

Pick one of the following, or make up your own:

Percy Jackson Matilda Wormwood Spider-Man (Peter Parker)

Red Riding Hood A made-up hero or villain

Step 2: Write your interview

Write 5 questions you would ask your character if they were on your show. Then, write the answers in the character’s voice. Make sure each answer gives us a clue about their personality, backstory, or emotions.

Use full sentences. Try to add humor, drama, or flair to make it entertaining!
