Sample Responses for Time Traveler's Trunk Answer Key

These are sample rewrites that model the use of descriptive and figurative language. Student responses may vary, but should include similar levels of detail and creativity.

Item 1 – Pocket Watch

Sample Rewrite:

Nestled deep in the coat's inner pocket, the rusted pocket watch clung to time itself—its tarnished face cracked like dry earth and its hands forever paused in silence.

---

Item 2 – Spectacles

Sample Rewrite:

These weathered spectacles, dust-cloaked and scratched like frosted glass, rest in a cracked leather case that whispers the worn initials of their long-gone owner.

---

Item 3 – Mirror

Sample Rewrite:

The oval mirror, framed by a bent silver edge dull as moonlight, reflects not just a face, but the soft echo of every soul who once gazed into its timeworn glass.

---

Item 4 – Journal

Sample Rewrite:

The ink-stained journal, its fragile pages torn and smudged, reads like a ghost's whisper—each sentence a fading heartbeat lost between spills of black and forgotten thoughts.

---

Item 5 – Wool Gloves

Sample Rewrite:

Worn thin by winters long past, these faded wool gloves still carry the shape of a hand—one marked by a thumb-sized hole where warmth slipped away.
