Directions: Choose one place. Describe it twice by shifting point-of-view. First, describe it as an optimistic traveler. Then, describe it as a worried explorer.

1. Write the place you will describe.

2. Optimistic Traveler Description: Describe the place through the eyes of someone excited, hopeful, and curious. What looks welcoming? What feels inviting?

3. Worried Explorer Description: Describe the same place again, but now the character is cautious or uneasy. What looks dangerous? What feels uncertain?

4. Explain one difference in tone between your two descriptions.

5. List two words or phrases you used that show the shift in point of view.

a. _____

b. _____
