Directions: Read the short story carefully. Then, answer the questions to show how the character learned to be patient.

Waiting For My Turn

Mia ran to the playground and saw her favorite swing. But another child was already on it. Mia crossed her arms and tapped her foot. She wanted to swing right away. Her teacher smiled and said, "Let's take deep breaths while we wait." Mia watched the clouds and counted slowly to ten. When it was finally her turn, she smiled and swung high into the sky. She felt proud that she waited without getting upset.

1. What did Mia want to play with?

2. How did Mia feel when she saw someone else on the swing?

3. What did her teacher tell her to do while she waited?

4. What did Mia do to stay calm?

5. How did Mia feel at the end of the story?
