Revealing Lines

Directions: Choose one prompt below. Write a short dialogue in which a character accidentally reveals a secret, fear, or motivation without meaning to. The reveal should happen naturally through the conversation.

Choose ONE Prompt and Write Your Dialogue

1. The Competition Slip: Two classmates talk about an upcoming competition. One unintentionally reveals why they want to win more than anyone realizes.
2. The Late Night Admission: Two friends discuss why one of them keeps staying up late. A deeper fear slips out in the middle of the conversation.
3. The Avoided Invitation: A character keeps turning down invitations to group events. During the dialogue, they accidentally reveal an insecurity they have been hiding.
4. The Project Partner Secret: While working on a project, one character reveals motivation they didn't mean to share, such as trying to impress someone.
5. The Strange Reaction: A character reacts strongly to an ordinary situation. In talking it through, they reveal a past experience they were trying to keep private.
