

Name _____

Sparked Disagreement

Directions: Choose one scenario below. Write a short dialogue that clearly shows the conflict between the two characters. Use quotation marks, punctuation, and dialogue tags.

1. The Art Table Mix-Up: Two students both think the same paint set belongs to them during a group project.
2. The Lost Soccer Ball: One player insists they kicked the ball out of bounds, while the other says it was still in play.
3. The Library Noise Issue: A student says whispering is allowed, but their friend says the librarian said to stay completely silent.
4. The Lunch Trade Problem: One student wants to trade snacks, but the other says they already promised someone else.
5. The Class Job Disagreement: Two classmates both want to be in charge of collecting homework for the week.

Write your dialogue here: