

Name _____

Choose And Debate

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Decide whether each or every fits better. Then, discuss with a partner or group why your choice makes the most sense. Be ready to explain your reasoning aloud using grammar rules and context clues.

1. _____ person in this class deserves recognition for unique contributions.
2. The teacher met with _____ student individually to review progress.
3. _____ time I visit the library, I discover a new author.
4. The manager thanked _____ employee for their effort during the project.
5. _____ one of the essays showed strong creativity, but some lacked structure.
6. We practice _____ afternoon before the championship game.
7. _____ of the planets moves around the sun at its own speed.
8. The counselor spoke to _____ of the students separately to ensure privacy.
9. _____ member of the orchestra must tune their instrument carefully.
10. _____ day brings a new challenge, and I'm ready for it.