

Name _____

Echoing Dialogues

Directions: Listen as your teacher reads each short dialogue aloud, with clear expression for both characters. Echo the same dialogue back, taking turns as each character. Focus on matching tone, pacing, and phrasing in your echo.

Practice Dialogue (The Lost Puppy)

Dialogue 1

Emma: Did you hear that barking sound?

Liam: Yes! It's coming from behind the fence.

Dialogue 2

Emma: Look, it's a puppy!

Liam: Poor thing—it looks hungry.

Dialogue 3

Emma: Should we take it home?

Liam: Let's first check if it has a collar.

Dialogue 4

Emma: You're right. Oh—there's a tag with an address!

Liam: Great! Let's bring it back to its owner.

Reflection Questions

1. Which dialogue was easiest to echo, and why?

2. Which line needed the most expression to sound realistic?

3. How does echoing help you understand the characters' feelings?

4. Why is practicing dialogue important for reading fluency?
