

Name _____

Rainy Day Echo

Directions: Listen as your teacher (or partner) reads each sentence aloud. Repeat (echo) the sentence, matching pacing, phrasing, and expression. Pay attention to natural pauses and the rise or fall of the voice. After practicing, discuss which sentences were easiest or hardest to echo.

Sentences for Practice (The Rainy Afternoon)

1. The rain tapped gently against the window.
2. A gray sky stretched endlessly above the town.
3. Mia curled up in a chair with her favorite book.
4. Thunder rumbled softly in the distance.
5. She smiled as the pages carried her into a new world.
6. A flash of lightning lit up the room for a moment.
7. Still, the storm made the house feel cozy and safe.
8. Mia whispered, "Rainy days are perfect for reading."

Reflection Questions

1. Which sentence had the easiest rhythm to echo?

2. Which sentence was hardest to repeat smoothly?

3. How did you match the expression when echoing dialogue (line 8)?

4. Why do you think practicing single sentences helps with fluency?

