

Name _____

Talk Tune-Up

Directions: Read the casual conversations below. Each one has vague or incorrect wording like "both" or "none." Rewrite each line using either or neither so the dialogue sounds clear and correct.

1. Lily: I can't decide which flavor to get. Both of them sound bad. (At the Ice Cream Shop)

Rewrite: _____

2. Evan: You can take both the 5:00 or the 5:30 bus to the city. (At the Bus Stop)

Rewrite: _____

3. Maya: None of the two books looks interesting to me. (In the Library)

Rewrite: _____

4. Owen: You can have both chips or crackers with your sandwich. (Choosing Snacks)

Rewrite: _____

5. Sophia: None of my two friends wants to go to the park today. (Weekend Plans)

Rewrite: _____

6. Alex: Both of the answers don't make sense. (In Class)

Rewrite: _____

7. Grace: You can buy both the red jacket or the green one. (At the Mall)

Rewrite: _____

8. Noah: None of the two movies we picked seems fun to watch. (Movie Night)

Rewrite: _____

9. Ella: Both of my cats don't like getting wet. (Pet Talk)

Rewrite: _____

10. Liam: You can do both your homework or your chores first. (After School)

Rewrite: _____