

Name _____

Choice Talk

Directions: Fill in each blank with either or neither to complete the short dialogues. Read them aloud to check that they sound natural.

1. Liam: Do you want chips or popcorn?
Zoe: Hmm, I don't feel like _____ one today.
2. Teacher: You may use _____ the blue paint or the green paint for the sky.
Student: Thanks! I think I'll go with the green.
3. Dad: Should we buy the red apples or the green ones?
Mom: _____ looks fresh enough. Let's go to another shop.
4. Ben: We can watch _____ the superhero movie or the mystery one.
Tina: Let's do the superhero movie!
5. Sam: Do you know the answers to number three or four?
Nora: _____ of them. They were really tricky!
6. Ella: Should I invite Mia or Grace first?
Noah: _____ is fine. They're both your close friends.
7. Jake: I can't decide between pizza or pasta.
Lily: _____ of those sounds great to me. I'll grab a salad instead.
8. Maya: Are you joining the science club or the chess club this semester?
Leo: _____ of them. I'm signing up for basketball.
9. Mom: You can choose _____ a cat or a rabbit to adopt.
Sophie: A rabbit, please!
10. Owen: Should we visit the museum or the zoo?
Emma: _____ works! I just want to go somewhere fun.