Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips:
 - Read each situation aloud and discuss possible choices before writing.
 - Provide visual cue cards showing expressions or actions for each advanced word.
 - Offer simplified word lists or definitions for learners needing extra support.
- Engagement Ideas:
 - Let students act out each emotion word in pairs or small groups.
 - Play "Emotion Match-Up," where students match word cards to scenario cards.
 - Encourage a class discussion about personal experiences related to these emotions.
- Extension Ideas:
 - Ask students to write original sentences using each word in a new context.
 - Have students create mini-posters defining and illustrating each advanced emotion.
 - Build an "Emotion Vocabulary Journal" for ongoing reflection and word mastery.
