Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips

- Review common ending blends before beginning and provide a reference list for students who need it.
- Read riddles aloud to emerging readers and emphasize the clue word to help them identify meaning.
- Challenge advanced students to create an extra riddle of their own using an ending blend word.

- Engagement Ideas

- Have students act out the word after solving each riddle to reinforce understanding.
- Let partners quiz each other by covering the answers and rereading the riddles.

- Extension Activities

- Ask students to highlight the blend in each answer word.
- Invite students to illustrate one riddle and label the picture with the correct ending blend word.
