Directions: Read the passage. Then answer the questions.

Grant took a small lunch and sat on a bench near the pond. He heard a duck splash as it swam past a thick branch. Grant wanted to catch a fish, so he set his rod near the edge of the dock. The fish did not pinch him, but it did cling to the net when he lifted it. Grant put the fish in a dish to show his class later.

1. Where did Grant sit near the pond?

2. What did the duck do in the water?

3. What was Grant hoping to catch?
