Teacher's Guide

- Skill Focus: Strengthening social awareness and polite entry and exit strategies when joining or leaving group activities.
- Differentiation Tips:
  - Offer verbal role-play instead of written responses for students with writing challenges.
  - Provide visual cue cards showing polite phrases (e.g., "Can I join?" "Thanks for letting me play").
- Engagement Ideas:
  - Have students act out the scenarios in pairs or small groups.
  - Use real-life classroom examples where polite joining is needed, such as games, reading circles, or team projects.
- Extension Ideas:
  - Let students write or draw their own "good entry" and "good exit" examples.
  - Reinforce by creating a "Kind Joiners" classroom poster with phrases from student ideas.
