

Name _____

Precision Check

Directions: Complete each section carefully. Choose or correct the right determiner (few/fewer or less) and reflect on why these choices matter in clear communication.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the correct answer for each sentence.

1. There were (few / less) volunteers available for the weekend cleanup.
2. I spent (few / less) money than I expected on my trip.
3. The storm left (few / less) trees standing than before.
4. She uses (few / less) sugar in her tea lately.
5. (Few / Less) cars were on the road because of the snow.

Part B: Correction Challenge

Some of the sentences below misuse few or less. Rewrite only the incorrect ones correctly.

1. There were less students at the meeting this week.
2. I have less interest in video games now.
3. The teacher gave us few homework tonight.
4. The store had fewer bread on the shelf than expected.
5. Less rain fell this month compared to last year.

Part C: Reflection

Answer in two to three sentences.

11. Why does it matter to know when to use few/fewer and less in writing and speaking?
12. Write your own example that shows correct use of both words in one sentence.