

Name _____

Directions: Read the paragraph carefully. Some determiners (fewer or less) are used incorrectly. Circle or underline the mistakes, then rewrite the sentences using the correct word.

Yesterday, Sam went to the market with his dad. They bought less apples because many were bruised. His dad picked fewer milk this time since the fridge was almost full. Sam noticed there were less people shopping in the morning and fewer sugar left on the shelves. Before leaving, Sam wished he had brought less coins to use at the checkout.
