Inference Quest

Directions: Read the passage carefully. Fill in the blanks with the correct words by using inference (clues from the text to figure out what is implied but not directly stated). The answers may not be directly written in the passage, but they should make sense when you connect the details. Reread the passage to check if your inferences are logical.

The Forgotten Backpack

When Mia walked into the classroom, her face turned pale. She checked under her desk and in her locker, but her backpack was nowhere to be found. She whispered to her friend, "I think I left it on the (1) _____ this morning." Her friend frowned and replied, "That's not good. Anyone passing by could have seen it."

Mia's shoulders slumped as she thought about her math homework, her favorite novel, and even her lunch—all stuck inside. At noon, she sat quietly at the cafeteria table with no food. Her friends offered her snacks, but she shook her head. She felt (2) _____, because she was too worried about her missing bag.

Later, the principal announced over the loudspeaker that a custodian had turned in a bag found by the front doors. Mia ran to the office, relieved. The principal handed it to her and said, "Next time, try to be more (3) _____ so this doesn't happen again."
